STAN LAWS

TIME IGNORED.

STAN LAWS
SANTIAGO

OVERHEARD AT NEWPORT.

"I thought Laura and Jack were going to be married?"

"They were, but at the last moment they changed their minds."

"Too bad! Such a sensible couple as that would certainly get along all right together."

PENRYN STANLAWS.

FRANK SNAPP

HOW THEY DO LOVE ONE ANOTHER!
HORTENSE—"She says she can't play without her music."
BELLE—"Strange! I never heard her play with any music."

A PERFECT GENTLEMAN.

MR. YOUNGHUSBAND—"Have you a good butcher, my love?"
 WIFE—"A perfect gentleman, darling. When I order a four-pound roast he always sends one weighing six or seven."

HER PREFERENCE.
HE—"I do love cherry-blossoms. They"—
SHE—"I think I prefer orange-blossoms."

PENRYN STANLAW

THOUGHTFUL OF HUBBY ALL THE WHILE.

MR. NEWLEETIED—"What did you do with that thirty dollars I gave you yesterday?"

MRS. NEWLEETIED—"Why, I spent part of it for a birthday-present for you, and the rest I put into this hat. Isn't it a beauty for only twenty-nine ninety-five, dear?"

BARE AND FOR BEAR.

"So Jack has been speculating in Wall street? Was he a 'bear' operator?"
"Well, he was very nearly bare before they got through with him."

WIFELY LONGING.

HE (reading)—"The King of Annam loved one of his wives so much that he ate her." "
SHE—"Ah! what wouldn't I give for devotion like that!"

IN SOCIETY.

"Which is your favorite opera?"
"Why—er—I forget the name; but it's that one which lets you out the quickest."

STANAWA

JAMES MONTGOMERY FLAGG

"HE JESTS AT SCARS THAT NEVER FELT A WOUND."

STANKAWS
ROME

TOO MUCH SO.

"Is she sentimental?"

"Very! She will even weep over her old divorce-papers."

A CONTENTED FOOL.

THE world is growing wondrous wise,
Or so they say;
And now they catch but stupid folk
On All Fools' Day.

And Love is folly, blind and rash—
The wise keep cool;
But, sweetheart, I'm content to be
An April fool.

TROUBLE SOMEWHERE.

JAMES MONTGOMERY FLAGG

TOO BAD.

"Poor dear! her husband died the same week she returned from Europe."
"How dreadful! If he had only died a month earlier she might have had a dozen more proposals."

ENGAGED.

NO DOUBT ABOUT IT.
He—"Is he a self-made man?"
She—"Oh, yes; he spells English the way it is pronounced and pronounces French the way it is spelled."

She—"Don't you think getting married is the most serious thing in life?"
He—"Not much! It ain't in it with getting ancestors."

THE USUAL WAY.

BEATRICE—"What did you get for Christmas?"

PENELOPE—"Horrors! don't ask me."

BEATRICE—"Why, my dear, what's up?"

PENELOPE—"Writing a dozen letters, saying they were 'just what I wanted.'"

HE HAD ANOTHER GUESS.

MISS GOTROX—"Papa says he thinks you will always be poor."
MR. HARDUP—"I hate to disillusion him by telling him of our engagement."

JAMES MONTGOMERY FLAGE

HOW DID HE MANAGE IT?

"Oh, yes; he belongs to the golf-club, the yacht-club, the canoe-club, the automobile-club, and the driving-club."

"Cad! and only one wife?"

ANOTHER "BRIDGE" SCANDAL.

REFRESHING DRINK.

UP AGAINST IT.

ETHEL—"So Bob and Edith are engaged? Can he support her in the style to which she is accustomed?"

JACK—"Support her? Why, he can't even support himself any longer in the style to which she has been accustomed to seeing him while courting her."

A THIEF IN THE NIGHT.

Geo. W. Barratt 1906

HOW SHE KNEW.
"How do you know he once had money?"
"He must have. He bought an automobile."

Penryn Stanlows

ABSOLUTELY SAFE.

CORINNE—"Is he a safe chap to go canoeing with?"

ETHEL—"Oh, yes. He's too bashful to move after he once gets into it."

NOT BRAIN-FOOD.

HE—"Oh, I say, Miss Fordyce! do you—aw—think cigarettes affect the brain, I say?"
MISS FORDYCE—"Oh, not a bit. Fellows with brains don't smoke them."

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY.

MRS. CHOLMONDELAY BROWNING—"Oh, yes, my dear; he got his money by extremely hard work."
MRS. UPTON STOKES-TRENT—"I thought it was left to him by his uncle?"
MRS. CHOLMONDELAY BROWNING—"It was; but he had hard work getting it away from the lawyers."

OF COURSE IT'S HIS FIRST.

"Is this Lord Dedhedd's first marriage?"

"I think so. He told the reporters he had never been to America before."

THE RECIPE FOR WEDDING-CAKE
CUPID—"Funny, but these up-to-date cook-books call for a lot of this!"

NOT AT THE FRONT.

SHE—"In case of war, would you go to the front?"

HE—"Well, no. I think I'd sooner be a war-correspondent."

THE DIFFERENCE.

"But a man is as young as he feels, you knows."
"Oh, I'm willing to admit that—if he is only as rich as he looks."

GETTING EVEN.

MRS. BRIDGES—"Good-bye, Robert. I'm going to Mrs. Wister's to play cards."

MR. BRIDGES—"All right, my dear, and as her husband owes me forty dollars for poker, you'll oblige me by losing that amount and by not paying it."
